Korean Silk Weekly Checklist

Your week of skincare, all on one page

8 WEEKS · 30-RECIPE MENU · 8 WEEKLY TEMPLATES

KOREAN SILK METHOD · HYDRATE · NOURISH · REJUVENATE · ONE WEEK AT A TIME

HOW IT WORKS

A steady routine starts with a little rhythm.

Getting started is one thing. Keeping track of 30 recipes is another. This checklist gives you one page per week, organized around the method's 3 layers. As your skin's preferences shift in your 40s, 50s, and beyond, you can choose what feels comfortable instead of doing everything. Pick your recipes, check off each use, and stay within the menu's limits. On Sunday, take a moment to notice how your skin feels and adjust the week ahead. Consistency matters more than perfection, and skipping an optional recipe is always okay.

KEEP GOING

Weekly Checklist

Build your own week within the recipe menu's limits.

Each resource has a different job. While using a guided plan, follow its daily schedule and the safety guidance here. Use this checklist afterward, or once you're familiar with the routine and ready to plan your own week. Print one sheet per week on US Letter paper, using Fit to Page if needed, or fill it out on your tablet.

THE ORDER OF THE METHOD

CLEANSE → HYDRATE → NOURISH → REJUVENATE → SUNSCREEN

Rinse off masks before applying leave-on products, then apply those from lightest to richest. You don't need all 3 layers every night. Choose one optional mask per session, add moisturizer as needed, and finish your morning routine with broad-spectrum SPF 30+.

YOUR WEEKLY RHYTHM

Four simple steps

Choose what feels comfortable. Skip anything else.

1 Start with the basics

Check off gentle cleansing and your morning broad-spectrum SPF 30+. Use a moisturizer that feels comfortable, and reapply sunscreen as directed.

2 Choose your optional extras

Pick a facial water, gel, or mask you've already patch-tested. Write its name on the blank line and check off the days you use it. You don't need something from every layer.

3 Stay within the limit

Each recipe has a frequency limit in the Recipe Menu. It's a ceiling, not a goal. Once you reach it, skip that recipe for the rest of the week; you don't need to replace it.

4 Sunday: a 5-minute check-in

Note how your skin felt, check your supplies, and adjust next week. More products don't always mean more comfort.

YOUR SKIN TYPE

Dry skin

You may prefer the richer textures in Layer 2. Choose what leaves your skin feeling comfortable.

Oily skin

Start with the lighter options in Layer 1, and use only as much as feels comfortable.

Combination skin

Adjust by area: lighter textures where skin feels oily and a little more moisturizer where it feels dry.

Busy week?

Gentle cleansing, a familiar moisturizer, and broad-spectrum SPF 30+ in the morning. Check it off and keep going. Homemade extras are optional.

GOOD TO KNOW

Using this with a guided plan

1. The checklist and guided plan serve different purposes.
2. During the 21-day or 7-day guided plan, follow its daily schedule instead of adding a separate weekly routine. Apply the safety guidance here throughout.
3. Use the checklist after the guided plan, or once you're familiar with the routine and ready to choose your own schedule.
4. When using the checklist, choose only the optional steps you need, use one mask per session, and stay within each recipe's frequency limit.
5. Use the Shopping Lists to plan quantities and find ingredients.

THE 6 GOLDEN RULES

1 Patch-test first

Before first use, apply a small amount to your inner forearm and monitor for at least 24 hours. Rinse off at the recipe's stated time; don't leave a rinse-off mask on for 24 hours. Don't use it if you notice itching, burning, redness, or swelling. A patch test can't rule out every reaction.

2 Sunscreen, every day

Apply broad-spectrum SPF 30+ every morning, rain or shine. Reapply according to the label, at least every 2 hours outdoors and after swimming or sweating. No homemade recipe replaces sunscreen.

3 Keep everything clean

Wash your hands and use clean, dry bowls, spoons, and containers. Don't share mixtures, double-dip, or add water to stored commercial products.

4 Make it fresh

Make homemade mixtures for one use and discard leftovers. A refrigerator doesn't make an unpreserved mixture safe to store. Never rely on smell alone to judge safety.

5 Check with your dermatologist

If you have sensitive skin, a skin condition, or are pregnant, ask a dermatologist before trying these recipes. Avoid broken or irritated skin and known allergens. Keep food-based mixtures away from eyes, eyelids, and lash lines.

6 Keep expectations realistic

Any benefits refer only to how skin looks or feels, such as temporary softness or a smoother-looking finish. Results vary. This is cosmetic care, not medical advice.

30. Aloe & Rice Smoothing Mask	Evening	15 min, then rinse off	1 time a week at most	Make fresh; discard leftovers

This menu is a planning guide, not a complete set of preparation instructions. Read the full recipe and patch-test before use. Frequency limits are maximums, not targets, and application times are upper limits: rinse off immediately if anything feels uncomfortable. Homemade mixtures have no verified shelf life here, so make only what you need for one use. For recipe 23, use a packaged fragrance-free moisturizer labeled for the eye area. For recipe 24, use only a clean cloth and plain cool water on closed eyes. Recipe 28 needs no stored preparation.

YOUR SUNDAY CHECK-IN

Listen to your skin

Your Sunday check-in, in three colors.

HOW DOES MY SKIN FEEL?

Green · keep it comfortable

Your skin feels comfortable and soft, without tightness.

Keep your routine steady. If you'd like to try something new, patch-test first and introduce just one recipe at a time.

Your skin feels tight, dry, or weighed down.

Pause the homemade extras and return to gentle cleansing, a familiar moisturizer, and daytime SPF 30+. If rice water leaves your skin tight, stop using it. Wait until your skin feels comfortable before considering another recipe.

Red · stop

You notice burning, itching, redness, or swelling.

Rinse gently with cool water and stop using the mixture. Don't apply homemade products to irritated skin. Contact a dermatologist if symptoms persist or worsen. Seek urgent medical help for trouble breathing or swelling of the lips, tongue, or throat.

BEFORE TRYING A NEW RECIPE

1 One at a time

Introduce one new recipe at a time so it's easier to notice what feels comfortable and what doesn't.

2 Patch-test first

Test a small amount on your inner forearm and monitor for at least 24 hours before facial use. Follow the stated rinse-off time. Discard the test batch and prepare a fresh amount for your face.

3 Give it 1 week

Wait at least one week before adding another new recipe, and only continue if your skin stays comfortable. Stop sooner if you notice irritation.

When life gets busy, keep it simple: gentle cleansing, a familiar moisturizer, and broad-spectrum SPF 30+ every morning. Check it off and move on with your day. Optional recipes can wait. Any cosmetic benefits are about appearance and feel, and results vary.

READY-TO-USE TEMPLATES

Ready-to-use weekly templates

Evening ideas for each week, within the recipe menu's limits.

These are optional menus, not daily requirements. If a night lists several items, choose one mask at most and add a cream or oil only if comfortable. Count a recipe listed under both daily care and a specific day as the same use. If you swap recipes, stay within the replacement's own limit. Every morning still includes broad-spectrum SPF 30+.

WEEKLY TEMPLATE 1 OF 8

The Essentials Week

The ebook's 6 core options, organized for an easy start or a busy week. Choose only what fits.

EVERY DAY

Daily options: Rice Water Refresh and Gentle Eye Moisturizer, if comfortable; broad-spectrum SPF 30+ every morning. Fresh Glow Gel Mask is optional on 3 to 4 days at most, not every day.

EVENING IDEAS		DONE
MON	Creamy Rice Mask · Rich Comfort Cream	☐
TUE	Just the basics	☐
WED	Evening Comfort Mask · Rich Comfort Cream	☐
THU	Just the basics	☐
FRI	Evening Comfort Mask · Rich Comfort Cream	☐
SAT	Creamy Rice Mask	☐
SUN	Rest day: just the basics	☐

Good to know: Recipes are grouped by layer to make planning easier. Use one mask per session, rinse it off before leave-on care, and prepare homemade items fresh. If you choose the gel mask, use it instead of another mask that day. Skipping an optional step is always okay.

WEEKLY TEMPLATE 2 OF 8

The Balanced Week

Explore different textures across the 3 layers for a comfortable, refreshed-looking finish.

EVERY DAY

Daily options: Rice Water Refresh and Gentle Eye Moisturizer, if comfortable; broad-spectrum SPF 30+ every morning. Fresh Glow Gel Mask is optional on 3 to 4 days at most, replacing another mask that day.

EVENING IDEAS		DONE
MON	Soft Oat Mask · Rich Comfort Cream	☐
TUE	5-Minute Gentle Facial Massage · Neck & Chest Comfort Cream	☐
WED	Nourishing Glow Mask · Silky Facial Oil	☐
THU	Cucumber & Aloe Compress · 5-Minute Gentle Facial Massage	☐
FRI	Dewy Sheet Mask · Rich Comfort Cream	☐
SAT	Smooth-Look Flaxseed Mask · 5-Minute Gentle Facial Massage · Neck & Chest Comfort Cream	☐
SUN	Gentle Oat Smoothing Mask · Creamy Rice Mask · Rich Comfort Cream	☐

Good to know: Treat the listed recipes as options, especially if this is a new routine. On Sunday, choose either Gentle Oat Smoothing Mask or Creamy Rice Mask, then add cream only if needed. Keep massage light and skip it when skin feels sensitive.

WEEKLY TEMPLATE 3 OF 8

A Little More Glow

Gentle options that may help dull-looking skin appear fresher.

EVERY DAY

Optional daily Rice Water Refresh. Use Fresh Glow Gel Mask only on its 3 scheduled evenings, or up to 4 times total if comfortable. Keep your usual moisturizer and morning SPF 30+.

EVENING IDEAS		DONE
MON	Creamy Rice Mask	☐
TUE	Fresh Glow Gel Mask	☐
WED	Just the basics	☐
THU	Fresh Glow Gel Mask	☐
FRI	Gentle Oat Smoothing Mask	☐
SAT	Creamy Rice Mask	☐
SUN	Fresh Glow Gel Mask	☐

Good to know: The scheduled gel-mask evenings count toward its weekly limit; they aren't extra applications. Smooth on the oat mask without scrubbing. You can turn any mask evening into a basics-only evening.

WEEKLY TEMPLATE 4 OF 8

A Refreshed Look

A simple week for a comfortable face and a refreshed-looking eye area.

EVERY DAY

Use Gentle Eye Moisturizer according to its label. Cooling Water Mist is optional when comfortable; use the Cool Morning Eye Compress as needed. Keep your usual moisturizer and morning SPF 30+.

EVENING IDEAS		DONE
MON	Evening Comfort Mask	☐
TUE	Just the basics	☐
WED	Evening Comfort Mask	☐
THU	Just the basics	☐
FRI	Evening Comfort Mask	☐
SAT	Just the basics	☐
SUN	Rest day: just the basics	☐

Good to know: Use only a packaged moisturizer labeled for the eye area, and follow its directions. The eye compress uses a clean cloth and plain cool water on closed eyes. Keep other mixtures away from eyelids and lash lines, and rinse off the evening mask before bed.

WEEKLY TEMPLATE 5 OF 8

Smooth-Look Care 40+

Comfort-focused options for skin that may look temporarily smoother after moisturizing.

EVERY DAY

Optional daily Silky Flaxseed Serum: make a fresh single-use amount each time and discard leftovers. Keep your usual moisturizer and morning SPF 30+.

EVENING IDEAS		DONE
MON	Rich Comfort Cream · 5-Minute Gentle Facial Massage	☐
TUE	Rich Comfort Cream · Smooth-Look Flaxseed Mask · 5-Minute Gentle Facial Massage	☐
WED	Just the basics	☐
THU	Rich Comfort Cream · 5-Minute Gentle Facial Massage	☐
FRI	Rich Comfort Cream · Smooth-Look Flaxseed Mask · 5-Minute Gentle Facial Massage	☐
SAT	Rich Comfort Cream	☐
SUN	Rest day: just the basics	☐

Good to know: Massage should feel light and comfortable, with enough slip to avoid pulling. Skip it on irritated skin. These steps are for comfort and a temporary smoother-looking finish; they don't change facial structure.

WEEKLY TEMPLATE 6 OF 8

Extra Comfort 50+

Richer textures for days when your skin wants a little more comfort.

EVERY DAY

Optional each evening: Neck & Chest Comfort Cream on the neck and upper chest. The daily listing and scheduled entries count as one application. Use morning SPF 30+ on exposed skin.

EVENING IDEAS		DONE
MON	Nourishing Glow Mask · Rich Comfort Cream · Neck & Chest Comfort Cream	☐
TUE	Rich Comfort Cream · Evening Comfort Oil · Neck & Chest Comfort Cream	☐
WED	Neck & Chest Comfort Cream	☐
THU	Creamy Avocado Mask · Rich Comfort Cream · Evening Comfort Oil · Neck & Chest Comfort Cream	☐
FRI	Neck & Chest Comfort Cream	☐
SAT	Rich Comfort Cream · Evening Comfort Oil · Neck & Chest Comfort Cream	☐
SUN	Rich Comfort Cream · Neck & Chest Comfort Cream	☐

Good to know: Choose the amount of richness that feels comfortable. You can skip facial oil when cream is enough. Make homemade creams fresh for each use, and don't assume the neck or chest will tolerate everything your face does.

WEEKLY TEMPLATE 7 OF 8

A Softer Feel

Gentle moisturizing options for skin that feels dry or tight, once it's comfortable enough for optional care.

EVERY DAY

Optional Rice Water Refresh up to 2 times a day, only if it feels comfortable. Stop if it leaves skin tight. Keep your usual moisturizer and morning SPF 30+.

EVENING IDEAS		DONE
MON	Dewy Sheet Mask	☐
TUE	Fresh Glow Gel Mask, Rich Comfort Cream	☐
WED	Creamy Plain Yogurt Mask, Rich Comfort Cream	☐
THU	Dewy Sheet Mask	☐
FRI	Fresh Glow Gel Mask, Rich Comfort Cream	☐
SAT	Creamy Plain Yogurt Mask	☐
SUN	Fresh Glow Gel Mask, Rich Comfort Cream	☐

Good to know: This is a menu of options, not a reason to use a mask every day. Start with fewer mask evenings and add only if comfortable. If skin is already tight or irritated, pause homemade extras and use your familiar basic routine.

WEEKLY TEMPLATE 8 OF 8

The Evening Wind-Down

End the day with a little care and a comfortable routine.

EVERY DAY

Optional each evening: freshly made Gentle Tea Toner. Keep your usual moisturizer and broad-spectrum SPF 30+ every morning.

EVENING IDEAS		DONE
MON	Soft Glow Mask	☐
TUE	Evening Comfort Oil	☐
WED	Just the basics	☐
THU	Evening Comfort Oil	☐
FRI	Just the basics	☐
SAT	Evening Comfort Oil	☐
SUN	Rest day: just the basics	☐

Good to know: Let the basics carry the week. Toner, a mask, and facial oil are optional extras. Prepare toner fresh, rinse off the mask before leave-on care, and use oils according to their original labels.

BEFORE YOU PLAN

Freshness & restocking

Check on Sunday before planning your week.

PREPARATION	HOW LONG IT LASTS
Rice Water Refresh	make fresh for each use; discard leftovers
Gentle Tea Toner	make fresh for each use; discard leftovers
Cooling Water Mist	use fresh distilled water; empty and clean the bottle after use
Flaxseed gel (serum and Smooth-Look Mask)	make fresh for each use; discard leftovers
Rich Comfort Cream	make a single-use amount; discard leftovers
Neck & Chest Comfort Cream	make a single-use amount; discard leftovers
Silky Lip Balm	make a single-use amount; discard leftovers
Plain facial oils (sweet almond or rosehip)	follow the original bottle's label and expiration date

Make homemade mixtures for one use and discard leftovers, including homemade creams and balm. No storage period has been verified for these recipes. Refrigeration doesn't replace preservation, and a normal smell doesn't prove a mixture is safe. Keep purchased ingredients in their original containers and follow their labels.

BEFORE YOU PLAN

Restock check

Check off anything running low. Use the routine's Shopping Lists for quantities. Most basics are available at a grocery store or drugstore; look for simple, unflavored, fragrance-free options.

- [ ] White rice or jasmine rice
- [ ] Plain rice flour
- [ ] Plain rolled oats, finely ground for masks
- [ ] Pure honey
- [ ] 100% pure aloe vera gel with no added fragrance or color; check for drying alcohol
- [ ] Plain sweet almond oil; avoid if allergic to almonds
- [ ] Plain shea butter
- [ ] Plain green tea or chamomile tea
- [ ] Plain whole-milk yogurt, with no added sugar or flavoring
- [ ] Cotton rounds
- [ ] Broad-spectrum SPF 30+ sunscreen
- [ ] Distilled water for the mist

A GENTLE NOTE

One week at a time. Keep it comfortable.

Print your next sheet, choose a few familiar options, and check off what you do. A routine that fits your life is one you can keep.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

This material provides general cosmetic-care and wellness information, not medical advice. It doesn't replace guidance from a dermatologist or another qualified healthcare professional. Results vary, and any benefits refer only to skin's appearance and feel. If you have sensitive skin, a skin condition, or are pregnant, consult a dermatologist before trying these recipes. Patch-test each new preparation and monitor for at least 24 hours, following its stated rinse-off time. Use broad-spectrum SPF 30+ every day. These ideas draw loosely on Korean-inspired skincare routines and aren't presented as specific authentic traditions. Frequency limits are planning ceilings, not evidence that a recipe is suitable for everyone. This checklist doesn't provide complete formulas or establish a verified shelf life for homemade mixtures.
